

TCPA unsolicited fax rules should not remove "established business relationships" Memberships to organizations should be permission enough to receive their information to events, tradeshow, etc. Changing this is bad for business in an economy that is starting to turn around.